Overall, the majority of programs have received positive feedback regarding the coverage of syllabus and explanation of topics. However, there are some areas for improvement in a few programs, particularly in B.com FINANCE where a notable portion of respondents rated the teaching quality as Below Average or Average. It would be beneficial for instructors in these programs to address any concerns and improve the learning experience for students.

Overall, the feedback indicates a positive perception of the library facilities across different programs. Most programs received high ratings of Excellent or Very Good, indicating that the library facilities are well-equipped with a wide range of resources including books, e-books, and e-journals. This suggests effective management of library resources, contributing positively to the academic environment and research activities within the institutions.
