EXAMINATION AND RESULTS

A range of assessments, including as exams, seminar presentations, assignment work, and project assessments, were used to gauge students' academic progress. PTA meetings were held following each model exam, giving the class teacher the opportunity to meet one-on-one with parents and students to go over suggestions for raising academic achievement. In addition, each department offered training courses, seminars, and motivational talks based on the demands of the present. Because of this, our students routinely receive high grades in their university exams.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE OF STUDENTS

The college consistently achieves commendable results in the university examinations. I would like to extend my congratulations to the students who will be receiving awards for their academic excellence.
